

What is Motive thought?

We are here to help you to improve yourself. 1% Everyday

Self Development is much more important than everyone think.
We motivate you to do things that will change your life.

We talk about success and how to have it in your life.

Philosophy and Psychology are our favorite topic to talk about and we love to use those to our advantage to reach our goals.

We believe our habits today, makes us who we are tomorrow.

Our life is short too learn lessons, so we like to learn it from others, from successful people and failed ones.

Our focus is completely on how to live happy and sustainable life
We often talk about finance, believe us worldly resources are much more important to live a happy life.

Motivethought is the mission and journey a better life. Join our journey to happy life by following us on Instagram,. we also have a website, check it out. Don't forget to turn on notification. So you won't miss out anything
